

disability & social structures

a public conference
Calvin College
17-18 January
2019

Thursday, 17 January

“From Community Access to Advocacy for All”
Cassandra Wolf (11:00-12:15, Chapel)

“Incomplete Without You: The Church and People with Disabilities”
Erik Carter (12:30-1:30, CFAC)

“Invisible Disabilities & Parent Advocacy”
Laura McMullen (2:15-3:30, Chapel)

“Inclusion in School: Serving So All Can Experience the Blessing”
Kim Primus (3:45-5:00, Chapel)

“You Can Be BRAVE” documentary public screening & discussion (7:30-9:30, CFAC Recital Hall)

Friday, 18 January

“Inclusive Post-Secondary Education:
The Good, The Bad, and the Ugly”
Antonio Contreras, Jennifer Luebke,
Christopher Luebke (11:00-12:15, Chapel)

“Ways We Witness: Disability and the Mission of the Church”
Ben Conner (1:45-3:00, Chapel)

“Stereotypical/Atypical: Depictions of Autism in Popular Media”
Robert Rozema (3:15-4:30, Chapel)

Both the Chapel and the CFAC are accessible to wheelchairs, have barrier free restrooms, and have hearing loops installed.

Questions or accessibility concerns should be addressed to kevin.timpe@calvin.edu

CALVIN INSTITUTE OF CHRISTIAN WORSHIP
for the study and renewal of worship